

Multigrid in Industry

Prof. Ulrich Trottenberg

Head of the Fraunhofer Research Institute for Scientific Computing and Algorithms
Chair for Numerical Mathematics and Scientific Computing at the University of Cologne, Germany
Fraunhofer Institute (SCAI)
Schloss Birlinghoven
53754 Sankt Augustin
Ulrich.Trottenberg@scai.fraunhofer.de

Multigrid algorithms are the most efficient solutions for a huge class of large-scale applications (partial differential equations) in Numerical Simulation.

The talk deals with Multigrid-based software development and its use for industrial applications.

It turns out that the Algebraic Multigrid approach (AMG) is the right answer for most of the industrial requirements.